3. DISCUSSION WITH CHANCELLOR KLAICH

INFORMATION

Student tuition and fee hearings should be scheduled through the spring semester before the MarchBoard of Regents meeting.

There has been a work committee assigned by Board of Regent's Chairman Paige and Vice Chairman Trachofor the institution service areas with no student representatives. President Leon askettle question about why there is any student representation on this committee Chancellor Klaich will address this issue to the head of the committee for response of why there is no student representation. There cuise to be all campuses to look at the organizational charts of the service to the serv

The agenda for the Board of Regenteeting in December should be posted and ready to go to by the end of this weekh agenda item about tuition fee increases will not be put on this agenda because the Chancellor needs to go out to all the institutions to have student hearings.

The Charcellor feels that the Board will approve the new medical school at the University of Nevada, Las Vers but the approval is for the idea, not the funding. President Gordon asked Chancellor Klaich about why the Board does not go into looking at the differental tula.6(f)-1(et)-20 Td [(t)-20 TCappr.004 4(l)-2e(n)]TJ20redte5(xt))P(r)-6(et
