1. Information Only – Public Comment

Kent Ervin stated that Foundation reports do not all provide uniform information related to program support and administrative and fundraising expenses. The financial statements show differences in how each Foundation operates. While NSHE knows from the legislative audit that donors' wishes are being followed, it does not show how unrestricted funds are being spent or prioritized. It would be helpful for the Board to receive uniform reports on foundation program expenditures by program and function. He asked what percentage of total program expenses is spent on administration fundraising, what the return in terms of contribution is as a multiple of those expenses, what unrestricted funds are spent on, and whether any foundation funds were spent on executive compensation or perks. He estimated from UNR's financial statement that 12 percent of FY 2023 expenditures were for administration and fundraising and that over $22 million was
