

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

01 16 1900

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

January 16, 1900

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Ä

personally attend to the duties of his position, which he had not done either in the year 1897 or 1898 by reason of leaves of absence granted him by the Board at his request, to attend to his private business, and by reason of the leave of absence for the whole of the Fall term of 1899, obtained by him from the President without the knowledge and against the will of the Board of Regents, after the Board of Regents had refused him such leave of absence, and

WHEREAS, Professor Jackson felt slighted at the selection of Professor Thurtell as Acting President instead of himself, and by reason thereof, as reported to the Board by the President, Professor Jackson sent in his resignation as Professor in the following communication:

$\frac{3}{4}$ Reno, Nevada, January 10, 1900

President J. E. Stubbs,

Dear Sir:

t: I regret tt

tion as Professor of Mining and Metallurgy.

With best wishes for the success of the University in all of its Departments,

I am, Yours truly,

R. D. Jackson

and WHEREAS, the President accepted such resignation, subject to the approval of the Board of Regents,

THEREFORE, be it RESOLVED, that Professor Jackson's resignation be and the same is hereby accepted.

and WHEREAS, on the 13th day of

Secretary of the Board informed Professor Phillips in writing . A B A D -- of the action of the Board. M A 0 .

Be it RESOLVED further, that the Acting President be and he 3 ... 3 I A ...

is hereby requested to nom . 4 .

On motion of Regent Deal, said nomination was confirmed and Dr.

Lauderback was appointed Professor of Chemistry and Physics at a salary of Eighteen Hundred dollars per annum, payable in equal monthly payments commencing from January 20, 1900.

No- N