

creases in salary and, in two instances, rank, were approved:

To take effect September 1, 1922:

Miss Williams from $100 to $110 per month
H. E. Higgins from general funds, $200 for instruction during the months September to April inclusive, in addition to the regular salary of $2400 from State Mining Laboratory funds

To take effect July 1, 1922:

Miss Beckwith, from $1800 to $2000
Miss Sissa, from $2000 to $2500
George W. Sears, from $2750 to $3000
J. F. G. Hicks, Jr., from $2400 to $2700
S. W. Wilcox, from $2750 to $3000
F. W. Traner, from $2750 to $3000 (owing to his leave of absence, this does not take effect until January 1st, next)
Miss Detraz, from $2250 to $2400 and an Assistant Professorship
Miss Pope, from $2250 to $2400
Stanley G. Palmer, from $3000 to $3300
A. E. Hill, from $3250 to $3350
A. E. Turner, from $2750 to $3000
Miss Riegelhuth, from $2400 to $2700
S. C. Feenster, from $2250 to $2500
F. H. Sibley, from $3750 to $4000
C. H. Kent, from $2250 to $2500
Miss Sameth, from $2400 to $2700
Miss Somers, from $2100 to $2250 and an Assistant Professorship

UN not wish to go on record as being against increases, but merely as being against inc

