

Ms. Williams      Aye
M. Pratt            Aye
Ms. Hood           Aye

President Clark read a letter from Dr. [redacted] the effect that the Classes of 1920, 1921 and 1922 [redacted] pooled their money gifts to the University in order [redacted] al might be bought to commemorate the war service [redacted] of Nevada men, were willing that this pooled sum [redacted] $324. 76, should be used towards a memorial gate [redacted] Lake Street entrance to the Campus.

The acceptance of this sum for the memorial [redacted] was ordered laid over until the next meeting of the [redacted] President in the meantime to get estimates on the cost of a suitable gateway and to confer with Dr. Haseman regarding [redacted] g of the word "arch" as used in his letter.

Ms. Hood suggested that the Board [redacted] in town on April 14th should attend the meeting of [redacted] Council and request that they have 9th Street [redacted] Street and University Avenue and Lake Street [redacted] and the 9th Street intersect [redacted] prior to Commencement [redacted] possible, Commencement Week being May 24th.

A

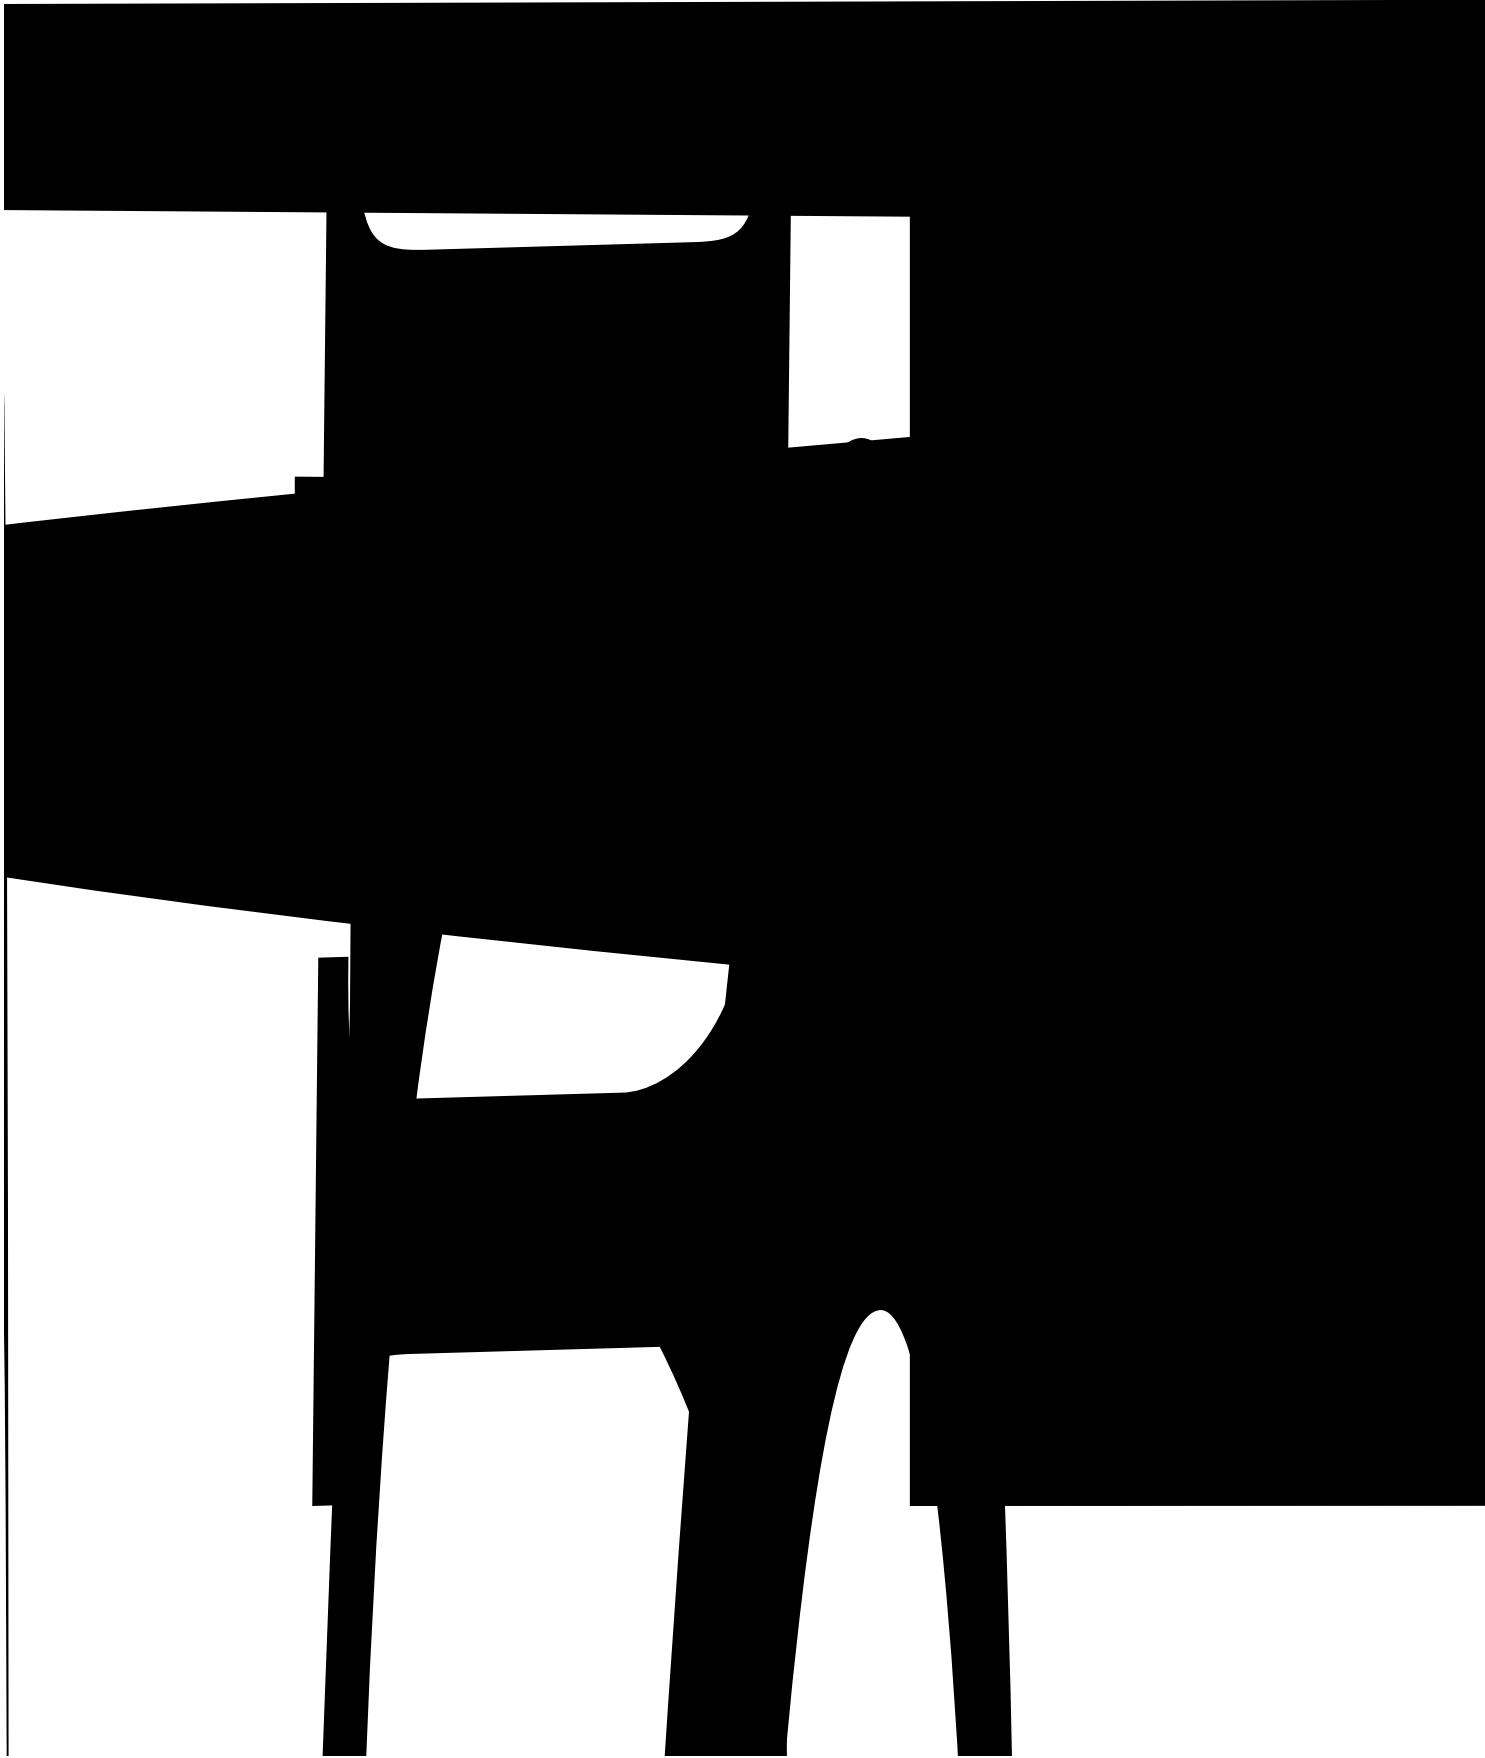

Ms. Williams	Aye
M. Pratt	Aye
Ms. Hood	Aye

President Clark recommended the election of Mr. John Edward Martie,

Mr. Hood

Aye

On the recommendation of Dean Hall, ~~President Clark~~ recommended that Ms. Lucia M. Foster be given academic rank as Instructor in Home Economics in Education, and that State Director of Judge P. A. Mc Carran. The matter was laid over until the next meeting.

President Clark was instructed to write to Mr. Fred Abel of the Bureau of Education at Washington to see if he would be willing to represent this University of Nevada as a delegate to the Centenary Celebration of the Franklin Institute at Philadelphia September 17, 18 and 19, 1924.

President Clark stated to the Board that there is now an ac beginning September 1, 1924 and with understanding that if his work is satisfactory he will be advanced to an Assistant Professorship at $2200 fo

M. Pratt	Aye
Ms. Hod	Aye

The Regents listened to a report on the condition of the Mackay Stadium by the Property Committee, Judge Talbot, and, after a discussion, Judge Talbot moved that the painting of the bleachers and the colonnade, the pointing up of the cement work, the replacement of the seat planks, the construction of a cement walk built 6 or 8 inches above the level of the ground and extending eastward from the colonnade to the driveway down to the field with an iron railing at its north edge anchored in the cement, all be taken care of before Commencement Week. Vote:

Judge Talbot	Aye
Ms. Williams	Aye
M. Pratt	Aye
Ms. Hod	Aye

President