

Dr. Hartman was unanimously authorized to advise Mr. Dashiell that he might terminate his services with this University as a member of the staff of the Department of Physical Education and Athletics for Men at any time he chooses between July 31, 1939 - the end of his salary year - and the expiration of the 5 months' "notice" he will probably receive from the Regents on May 13th, the termination, without any slightest discredit to himself, of his s