

Bid Opening

President Stout reported on the meeting to open bids for Heating Pâ .

Regional Division, Las Vegas:

For all regularly enrolled matriculated undergraduate students a basic registration and course fee of $38, a health examination fee of $2 and a student activity fee of $5, making a total consolidated fee of $45, be charged. The regular out-of-st

Agriculture, Mining, Engineering and Education. It has been our thought that the University of Nevada should do for the business people of this State what other State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges do for those engaged in business in other states.

During the past year we have carefully studied our program
a m t s o s d

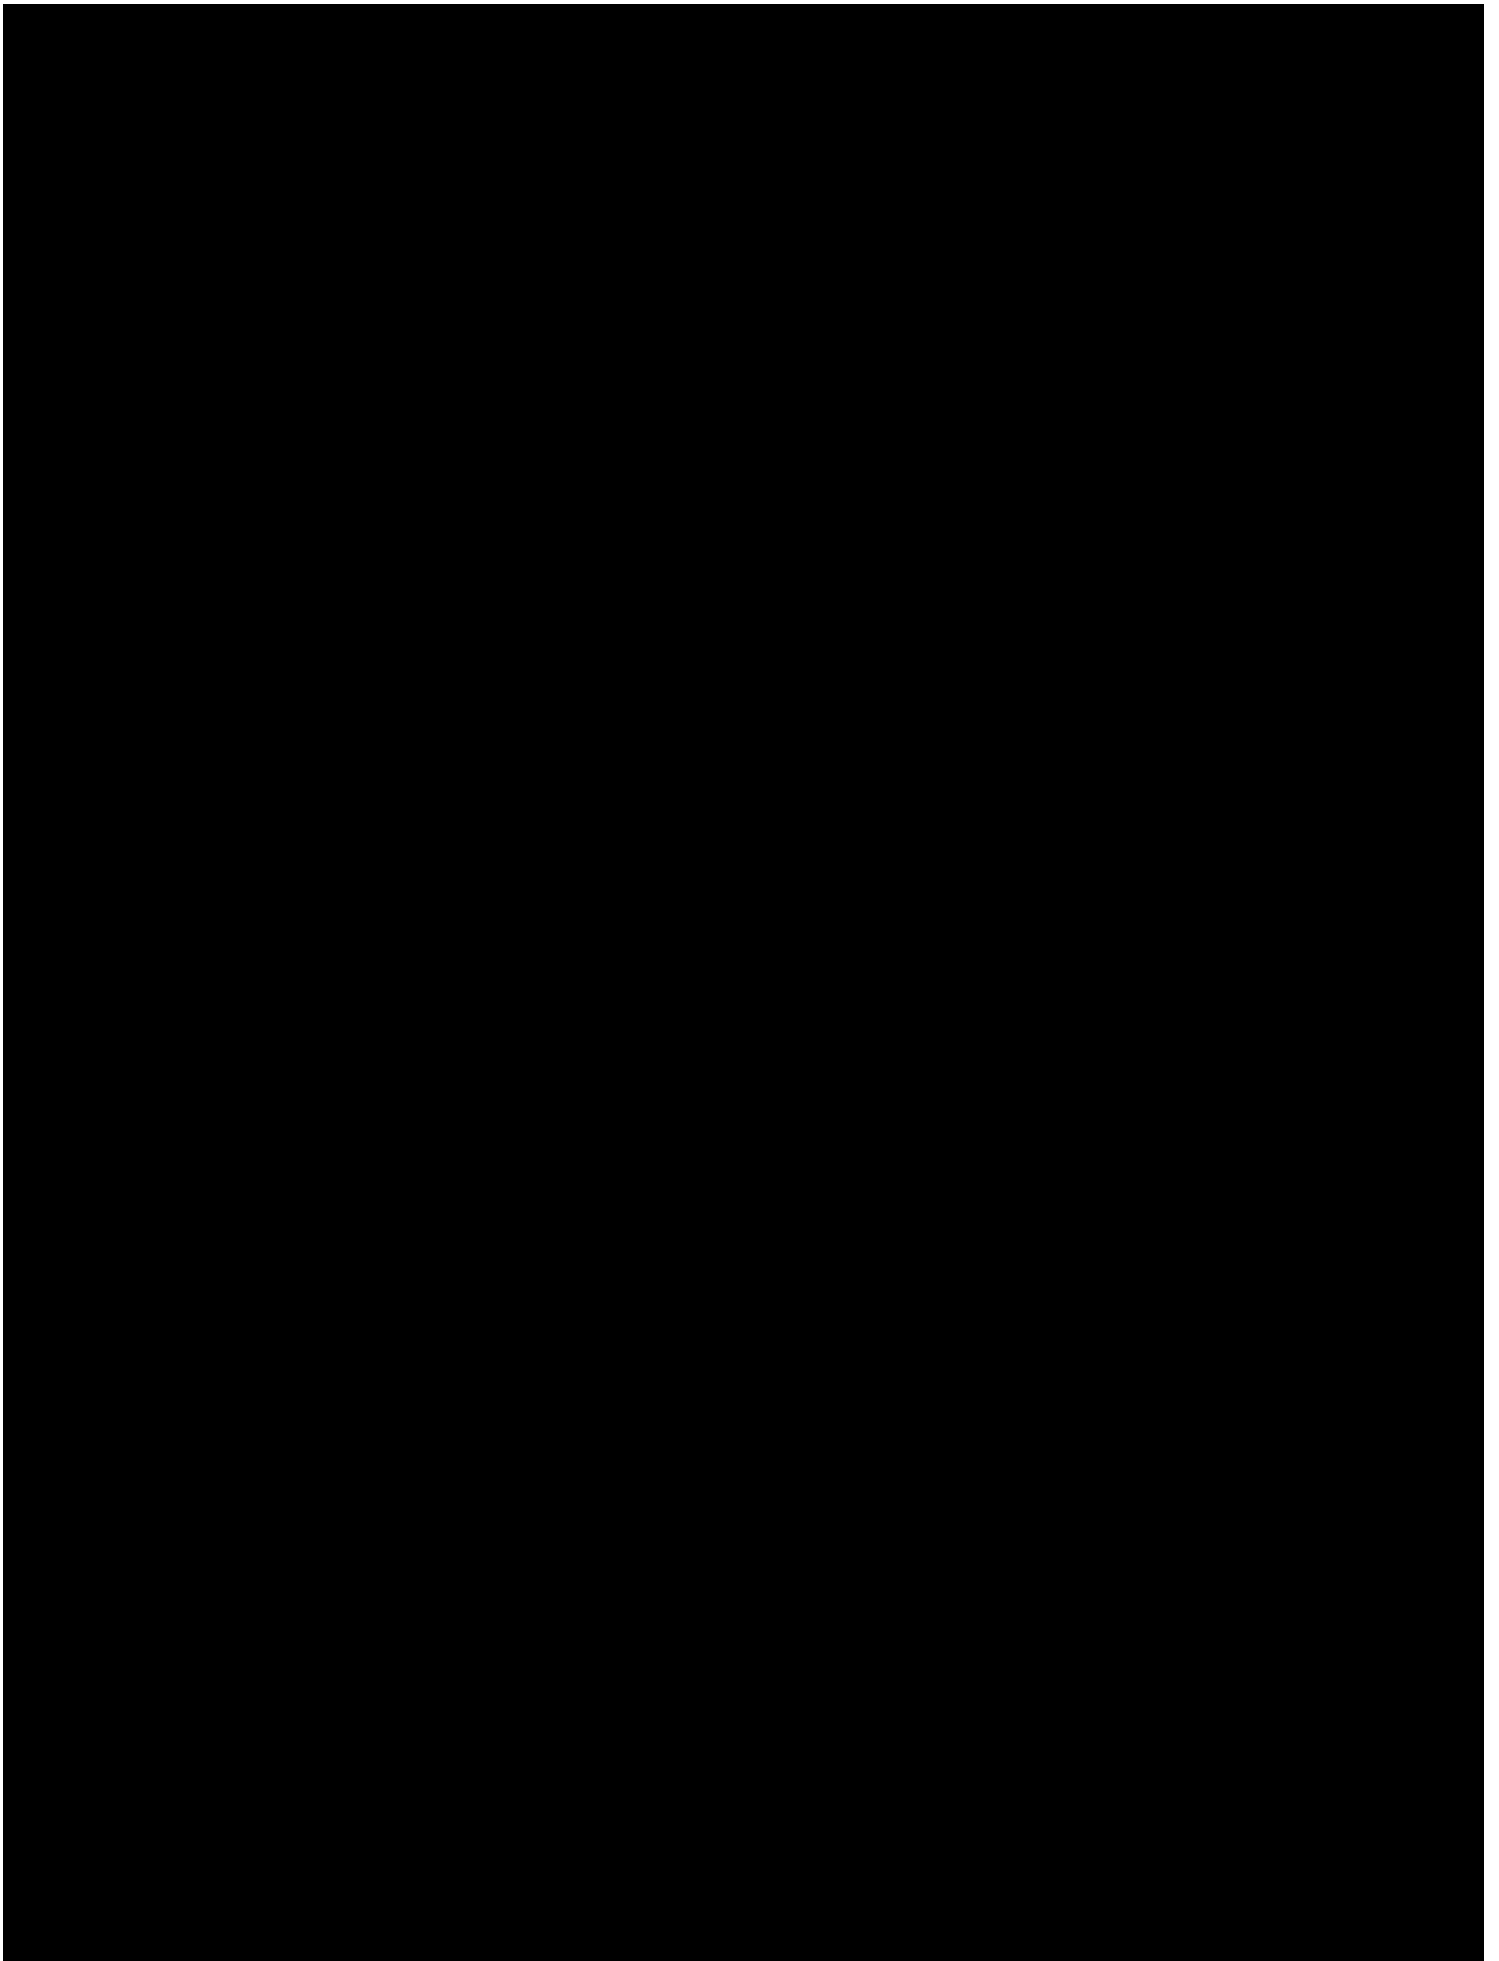

A strong College of Business Administration should never become a comfortable place to be, because business in the State of Nevada munications, personal jealousies and a half dozen others.

Classes should be conducted on a dis

The University of Nevada is faced with of Education, effective July 1, 1955, in order that he might accept a position at California State Polytechnic Institute.

2. Appointment of Roy De Verl Willey as Profes

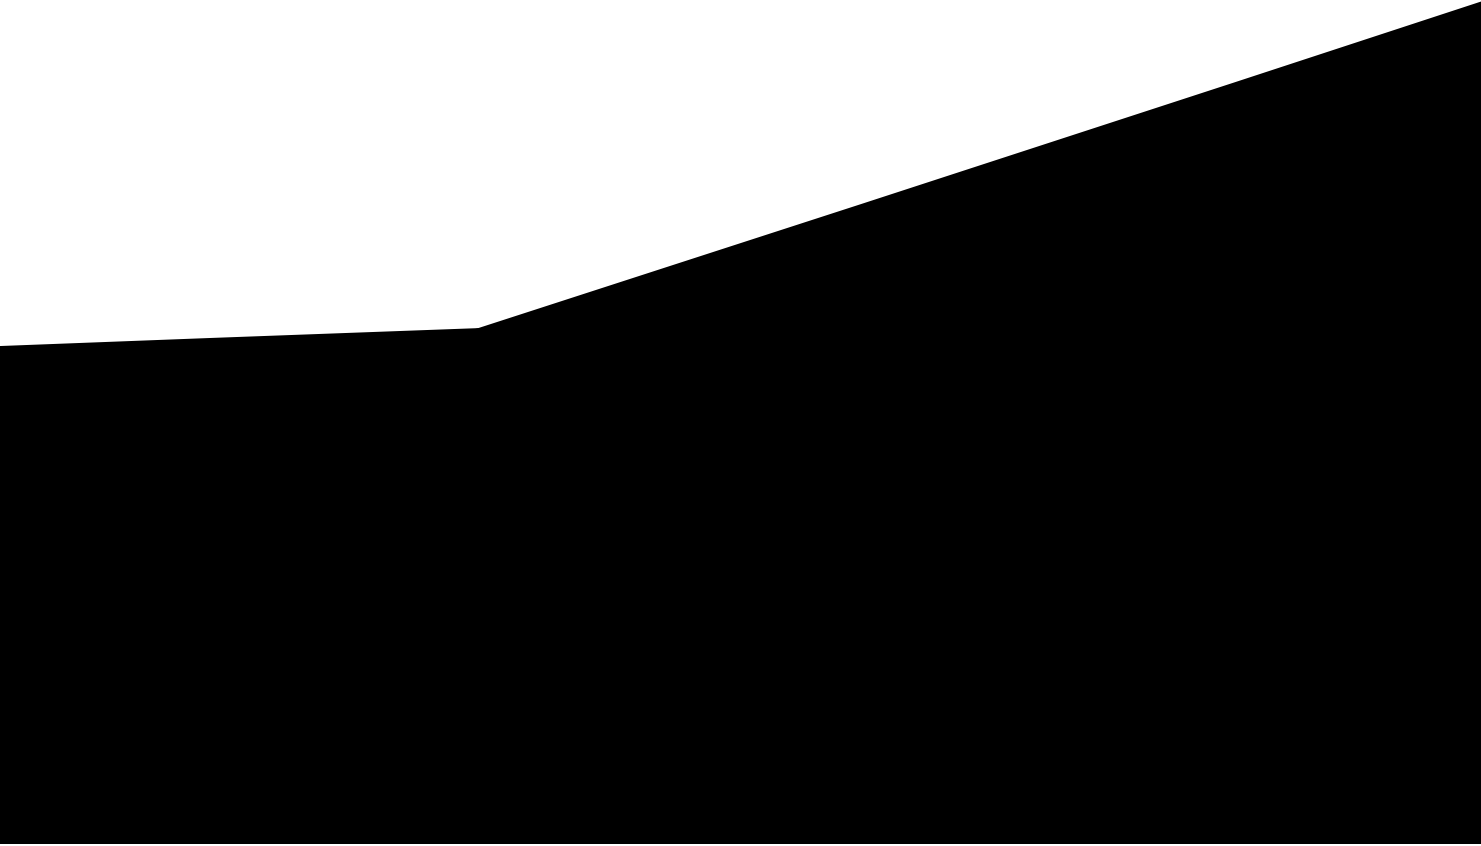

Experiment Station, effective July 1,

Husbandry for the Spring semester 1956 at a total salary of $630 for the semester.

13. Leave of absence for John M. Fenley, Agricultural Agent in Clark County, without pay, from October 5, 1955 to August 31, 1956, in order that he might accept a Ford Foundation Fellowship in Extension Education at Cornell University.
14. Resignation of Lyle Mc Cartney as Animal Husbandman, Agricultural Extension Service, effective July 1, 1955. Mr. Mc Cartney has accepted a position as Manager of a ranch.
15. Resignation of George Zappettini as Extension Forester (1/2 time) effective July 1, 1955 to accept a full-time position as Assistant State Forester-Firewarden.

Mackay School of Mines

1. Appointment of E
-

er, Atomic Energy Project, effective July 1, 1955, at a salary of $325 per month.

8. Reappointment of Willmar Tilden Berg as Laboratory Helper, Atomic Energy Project, effective July 1, 1955, at a salary of $325 per month.

9. Reappointment of William Wallace South as Laboratory Helper, Atomic Energy Project, effective July 1, 1955, at a salary of $315 per month.

10. Reappointment of Richard T. Donovan as Laboratory Technician (student), Atomic Energy Project, effective July 1, 1955 at a salary of $280 per month for full-time during the Summer months and during the school year, for 1/3 work.

11. Reappointment of Joseph John Mendive as Laboratory Technician (student), Atomic Energy Project, effective July 1, 1955 at a salary of $330 per month for full-time during the Summer months and during the school year for 1/3 work.

12. Appointment of Robert Morris of the Department of Chemistry (supplemental) as Laboratory Technician (student), Atomic Energy Project, effective August 1, 1955 for the months of August, 1955 at a salary of $300 per month.

30 Agricultural Economics - John L. Fischer
Agricultural Education and Agricultural Mechanics -
Howard Christensen
Agricultural Chemistry - Walter F. Dye
Agronomy and Range Management - Joseph H. Robertson
Animal Husbandry - James

