

Members absent: Dr. James Eardley

Other

Chancellor as a coordinator, or as the conduit from President to Chancellor to Board. Presidents need to make the Chancellor aware of all situations, but should be able to contact Regents individually.

Board relationships with other constituencies.

diffe

fective communications and reported in general session the following:

Board of Regents:

The committee structure needs to communicate more effectively to Board members. (If used effectively, the Board then is supposed to "rubber stamp" the action
the committee.)

The Board needs to get information for decision making in a more timely manner. The staff should interpret the information in a succinct manner, and the information must b

L bly
e R L
@ P U ? . . . 0

in the System, stating that in 1981 the publication m

"Nevad 2000" was establish

Regents: Resources - funding, budgets and facilities planning and growth.

Presidents: Resources - funding, budgets, and faculty issues accountability/assessment.

Faculty Senate Chairmen: Resources - funding, budgets, and facilities growth faculty issues.

Chancellor'.

sibilities during leave, 4) assisting with replacement of President while on leave, and 5) informing the public of the leave.

A Chancellor's Committee will draft a policy for Board consideration.

The retreat adjourned at 1:15 P.M.

Mary Lou Moser

Secretary

10-18-1990